INDIAN YOUTH PARLIAMENT, NATIONAL SESSION 2026

About the Indian Youth Parliament (IYP)

A national platform connecting youth with governance and democratic values

Focus on leadership development and parliamentary understanding.

Encourages youth participation in nation-building and social development.

Key Discussion Areas

Indian Languages and cultural heritage

World, national, and regional issues.

Environment, water, and ecological balance.

Grassroots programs and youth-led initiatives.

Conclusion

A unique national platform for youth leadership and democratic engagement

Encourages inclusive dialogue and policy-oriented thinking.

Strengthens India's linguistic and cultural identity.

Shaping the Dialogue for a Developed India

The session's agenda is built on a central theme, supported by philosophical pillars and practical topics, ensuring a comprehensive and meaningful discussion.

Practical Topics for Deliberation:

- Current World, National & Regional Issues
- Grassroots Community Programmes
- Environment, Water & Diversity

Not a Mock Parliament. A Real Dialogue.

The IYP format is designed for genuine engagement, not role-playing. You participate as yourself an engaged youth leader with a unique perspective to share. The future is unscripted, and so is our dialogue

What to Expect:

- ✔ Spontaneous Debate: Engage authentically on urgent national issues. No pre-written scripts or assigned portfolios.
- ✔ Interactive Workshops: Deep-dive sessions for hands-on analysis of topics like climate action and grassroots solutions.
- ✔ Direct Q&A: Challenge ideas and interact directly with distinguished keynote speakers and domain experts.
- ✔ 'Table Talk' Networking: Unparalleled access to mentors and guests during informal breakfast and lunch sessions for deeper one-on-one discussions.

Last Session Details:

The 29th National Session of the Indian Youth Parliament (IYP) concluded in Nagpur, Maharashtra, on 23 March 2026. The event was a major four-day national dialogue aimed at bridging youth perspectives with governance and cultural heritage.

Organizer:

Central Sanskrit University (CSU), New Delhi: As the lead academic partner under the Ministry, CSU aligned the session with the Indian Knowledge System (IKS). Prof. Shrinivasa Varakhedi, Vice-Chancellor of CSU, served as the Organizing Coordinator.

Indian Youth Parliament (IYP) is indeed governed and operated as a national-level trust under the name Indian Youth Parliament Trust. This trust serves as the legal and administrative backbone for the initiative, ensuring the continuity of its national sessions. The trust is the official body responsible for organizing the large-scale National Sessions, such as the 29th Session in Nagpur (March 2026) and the 31st Session in Jaipur (September 2026). Collaborations: It acts as the signatory and coordinating entity for partnerships with the Ministry of Education, Central Sanskrit University, and various State Legislative Assemblies. The trust manages the copyrights for the specialized publications released during sessions, including the Panch Parivartan and Ancient Governance book series. The trust's operations are spearheaded by Shri Ashutosh Joshi, who serves as the National Convenor.

Other Key Collaborators

Bharatiya Bhasha Samiti (Ministry of Education): This committee was instrumental in driving the session's focus on India's linguistic heritage. They ensured that the dialogue integrated the 22

Scheduled Languages and emphasized using mother tongues in higher education to support national integration.

Media Foundation: The primary organizing body that coordinated with the Ministry's institutions to execute the four-day national dialogue.

Water Parliament: Partnered to focus on environmental and grassroots community issues within the Panch Parivartan framework.

Kavi Kulguru Kalidas Sanskrit University (KKSU), Ramtek: Acted as the local university partner, providing regional academic depth and logistical support for delegates in the Vidarbha region.

Participation: Districts and Languages

The event saw broad representation across India's geographical and linguistic landscape:

Participants: Approximately 750–800 selected youth delegates from universities and research institutions.

Districts Represented: Delegates represented over 300 districts across 28 states and UTs following a tiered selection process at the institutional and district levels.

Linguistic Diversity: Participation was officially recorded in 22 Scheduled Languages, with special sessions dedicated to Sanskrit and North-Eastern regional dialects.

Linguistic Representation: In line with the theme, participants represented over 22 official Indian languages, with a significant focus on integrating regional perspectives from North-Eastern states (Meghalaya, Mizoram, Manipur, Sikkim, Assam) as well as the Southern and Northern regions.

The 29th National Session in Nagpur (March 2026) featured a major academic launch of 11 specialized books published by the Media Foundation and Indian Youth Parliament. These books were designed to integrate ancient Indian wisdom with modern governance.

1. The Panch Parivartan Series (05 Books)

This series focuses on the five key transformations required for Viksit Bharat@2047, exploring their intersection with youth and policy:

Book 1: Panch Parivartan: Samajik Samarsata (Social Harmony)

Book 2: Panch Parivartan: Kutumb Prabodhan (Family Values/Education)

Book 3: Panch Parivartan: Paryavaran (Environment & Sustainability)

Book 4: Panch Parivartan: Swadeshi (Self-reliance & Local Economy)

Book 5: Panch Parivartan: Nagarik Kartavya (Civic Duties)

2. The Ancient Governance Series (05 Books)

These books extract timeless leadership lessons from the five great Indian political thinkers, providing a framework for modern administration:

Book 6: Acharya Manu – Focuses on the foundation of law and social order.

Book 7: Maharshi Ved Vyas – Focuses on moral leadership and the ethics of power (Rajdharma).

Book 8: Acharya Shukra – Focuses on administrative management and Shukraniti.

Book 9: Acharya Kautilya – Focuses on economic policy (Arthashastra) and statecraft.

Book 10: Acharya Kamandak – Focuses on diplomacy and the Nitisara.

3. The Democracy Landmark (01 Book)

Book 11: Loktantra: Sanskriti (Democracy: Culture)

This cornerstone publication explores the concept of "Democracy" not just as a political system, but as a deeply rooted cultural value in India, tracing it from the ancient Sabhas to the modern Parliament.
